MITCHELL COLLEGE

The 1942 CIRCLE

A Yearbook Published by the

SENIOR CLASS

OF

MITCHELL COLLEGE

STATESVILLE, N. C.

NANCY ALEXANDER
Editor-in-Chief

PERRY ODOM
Business Manager

IN this 1942 CIRCLE we have tried with picture, verse, and rhyme to catch and preserve scenes typical of our life at Mitchell College. We have tried to show to those who have imagination an escape from today's horrors into yesterday's happiness.

When in later years you may turn through the pages of this CIRCLE, we hope that you will recall with pleasure your life at Mitchell College and think of your school days as life in a land of fairy-tales.

THE

FOREWORD

WITH love and sincere appreciation of her work at Mitchell College, the Senior Class has dedicated this publication to MISS ALICE C. STRONG—Teacher of English and Children's Literature. We are grateful for her patience, for her sincerity, and for her earnest efforts to make us enjoy and appreciate the best in literature and life.

MISS ALPHA PERMELIA RASOR

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TO THE GRADUATES OF NINETEEN FORTY-TWO:

IN these days of national stress and of international confusion you may be wondering what Mitchell has to say to you. If your college has spoken to you at all in these two years, you have heard her say, "Awake, young men and young women. Think for yourselves. Do well your tasks. Learn to live with others. Let reason be seasoned with justice, and let action be tested by love. Remember God has a definite plan for every life and that those lives are fullest and richest that find and follow the pattern Divine."

That followed her to classes
Just to see what happened there
As seen through teacher's glasses.*

Just turn the page to find, sirs,
The classes he did see.*

Mascot

*Old King Cole was a merry old soul,
And a merry old soul was he;
He went to the gym,
Full of vigor and vim,
And he yelled and he clapped with glee.*

*He cheered for his team and his frater;
He had not a care in the world!
Cause he loved his school,
The merry old fool
Was a credit to Alma Mater!*

ATHLETICS

The Athletic Association is an organization composed of the students who participate in the various functions of physical skill. The association is under the supervision of the physical director, whose duty is to encourage students to take part in such games and sports as tennis, basketball, archery, volleyball, badminton, golf, skating, hiking, and bicycle riding. A student's athletic rating is based on a point system which leads to athletic letters and to the high score award of the Kirkpatrick cup.

AT MITCHELL

The Queen of Hearts
From foreign parts
Comes merrily on her way.
The Knave of Hearts
A panic starts
And steals her realm away.

Now

The Queen of Hearts
And Knave of Hearts
Over the campus hold sway.
